Local Leaders to Speak at Community Health Symposium

ACHF hosts a free event focused on advancing health equity

ASHLAND — Ashland Community Health Foundation (ACHF) presents A Path to Equity: Building Healthier Communities on Friday, June 21, 2024, from 8:30 am to 2:30 pm at Ashland Hills Hotel & Suites and Conference Center.

This free event brings together community members and leaders who share a common goal of improving health for all. Guests will learn about the factors that influence health and how local organizations are working together to advance healthy equity in Ashland, Talent, Phoenix, and beyond.

Continental breakfast and lunch are provided. Seating is limited and pre-registration is required by Wednesday, June 19, 2024, at achfoundation.org/symposium.

Symposium speakers include:

- Pam Marsh, Oregon State Representative, House District 5
- Peter Buckley, Southern Oregon Success
- Larry Gibbs, PhD, Southern Oregon University
- Sadie Siders, Jackson County Health & Human Services
- and many more!

More details about the schedule, speakers, and topics can be found at achfoundation.org/symposium.

Media is invited to cover the symposium. Please contact Stephanie Roland at 541-482-0367 x. 2 to make arrangements.
