ACHF Prepares for Executive Director Transition

Janet Troy will be succeeded by ACHF Associate Director, Stephanie Roland

ASHLAND — Ashland Community Health Foundation’s (ACHF) long-time Executive Director, Janet Troy, will retire at the end of 2023.

Janet moved to Ashland from Ohio to join the ACHF staff in June 2009. Since that time, Janet has led the foundation through four evolutionary shifts while keeping its mission clearly focused on the health and well-being of the Ashland, Talent, and Phoenix community. Janet’s thoughtful approach has helped steer ACHF forward during both prosperous and challenging times.

In addition to her work with ACHF, Janet has served the community for the last fourteen years through memberships in the American Association of University Women (AAUW), Ashland Chamber of Commerce, Talent Chamber of Commerce, and the Rotary Club of Ashland, where she is currently President.

Stephanie Roland will be assuming the role of Executive Director on January 1, 2024. Stephanie is an Oregon native and moved to Ashland in 1997 to attend Southern Oregon University. Stephanie began her career with ACHF in 2007 as the Development Associate and has worn many hats over the past 16 years. She has a deep understanding of the foundation’s history and strong connections with ACHF donors. As Associate Director, Stephanie currently oversees operations and leads ACHF’s grantmaking and scholarship programs.
