Ashland Community Hospital Foundation Welcomes Five New Board Members

ASHLAND – Ashland Community Hospital Foundation is pleased to announce the newest members of its board of directors, who will serve two three-year terms:

Larry Gibbs, Ph.D., is an Associate Professor of Sociology at Southern Oregon University and a Medford resident. He is faculty in Ethnic and Racial Studies and Co-coordinator of the Healthcare Administration program. As a trained family demographer, he uses quantitative and demographic methodologies to investigate issues pertaining to health disparities among various populations.

Larry believes using research is important for community development and has been part of grant funding proposal efforts to assess community health care needs in the Rogue Valley since 2017.

Tiffanie Lambert, Ashland, is Assistant Superintendent of Teaching and Learning at Phoenix-Talent Schools. She serves as logistics lead in the emergency response to the 2020 Almeda Fire in addition to her duties overseeing and managing federal programs, special education services and curriculum. Phoenix-Talent Schools has been critical in the fire response and rebuilding of their community, as well as navigating through the COVID-19 pandemic.

Tiffanie has been an Oregon public educator for 22 years and has served as special education teacher, elementary principal, middle school principal, special education director and curriculum director. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Education from Washington State University and a Master's in Education in Educational Leadership from the University of Oregon.

Jeff McCullough, Ashland, is a certified financial planner and owner of Koenig Investment Advisory, LLC. Jeff works with individuals, families and businesses who require comprehensive financial planning and investment advice. Prior to joining Koenig Investment Advisory in 2014, Jeff lived in Seattle where he worked with several highly respected wealth management teams. He got his start in the financial services industry in 2006 after earning a bachelor's degree in finance from Seattle University.

Jeff is a member of the Southern Oregon Estate Planning Council, Rotary Club of Ashland Lithia Springs, and a past board member of the Ashland Schools Foundation and Highline Schools Foundation.

Liz Murphy, long-time Ashland resident, is an independent certified financial planner and is affiliated with Raymond James Financial Services. Liz earned her Bachelor of Arts and Master of Business Administration from Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles. As a dedicated volunteer, she is involved with a diverse group of organizations, and this marks her second time on the Ashland Community Hospital Foundation where she (previously) served as President. She also dedicates her time to the American Association of University Women and United Way's Women Living Leadership program.

Judy Pavlik moved from Yreka, California, to Ashland more than 10 years ago. Prior to that, she lived in the San Francisco Bay Area and worked as an elementary school teacher for 32 years and a portrait photographer for 22 years.

Judy enjoys giving her time freely to organizations that help our community thrive. She has been a volunteer with the Ashland Chamber of Commerce as Greeters co-chair and was chair of the 4th of July Celebration two years. She has also volunteered for the Oregon Shakespeare Festival.

About the Foundation

Ashland Community Hospital Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) leading philanthropic efforts to advance innovative and equitable approaches to community health and wellness. Founded in 1977, the foundation was originally established to provide a way for community members to support the work of Ashland Community Hospital.
